

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Established in 1995, the College of Engineering, Adoor is affiliated to Cochin University of Science and Technology (CUSAT) and APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University(KTU) and is approved by the AICTE. It is a Government sponsored self -financing institute.

The college offers courses in Computer Science & Engineering, Electronics & Communication engineering, Electrical & Electronics engineering and Mechanical engineering. The approved intake for Electronics & Communication engineering and Mechanical engineering is 120 while the college admits 60 students per year in the Computer Science & Engineering and Electrical & Electronics engineering department.

The college has three types of seats.

- Merit Seats

50% of the seats in each branch are filled on merit basis. Allotment of candidates to these seats are done by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations, Govt of Kerala, purely on the basis of rank list prepared after the KEAM Examination each year. This type of seat has a nominal fee of Rs 35,000/- per year.

Eligibility: 50% Marks in Mathematics separately and 50% Marks in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry put together.

- Management Seats

45% of the seats in each branch are earmarked as Management Seats. These seats also are filled up by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations based on the KEAM Rank List. These type of seats has a slightly higher rate of fees than that of merit seats, ie Rs 65000/- per year.

Eligibility: 45% Marks in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry put together.

- NRI Seats

5% of the seats are reserved for the dependants of Non-Resident Indians. These seats are filled up directly by the College Management. A candidate need not have to attend the KEAM Entrance Examination to apply for these seats, he can directly approach the college authorities to secure admission to these seats. The management (Institute of Human Resources Development- IHRD) does the seat allotments based on the Plus Two marks. A candidate who desires to apply for these seats must apply online through the portal provided by IHRD for this purpose. The link to this portal is given in the home page of our website.
